WANTED

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN IN EVERY TOWN on the Pacific Coast, to canvass for Bugbey's Patching and Darning Last; patented May, 1882. This novelty is akin to the sewing-machine as a labor-saver; and the popular price of Fifty Cents causes it to be sought for by all having darning or mending to do. The use of this new invention makes the very unpleasant labor of mending a pastime and a pleasure. The amount of capital required is nominal. Canvassers of good habits, good morals and pleasing address will do well to call on the undersigned at Hobby's Stone and Earthenware Store, No. 317 J street, Sacramento, and examine the novelty soon. Address B. N. BUGBEY, owner of the patent for the Pacific States, P. O. Box 204. These lasts are for sale in nearly all first-class dry goods stores. Also proprietor of the celebrated Butter Cooler, for keeping butter, etc., without ice in the hottest weather. Water Filters and Water Jars, for keeping water without ice, for sale. a25-4ptf

MISCELLANEOUS.

Voluntary Tributes of Gratitude for Benefits Received.

DEAR SIR: Please allow me the privilege of giving my testimony regarding the wonderful curative properties of your invaluable medicine, HUNT'S REMEDY. During the past six or seven years I have been a great sufferer from kidney disease, and during a great part of the time my sufferings have been so intense as to be indescribable. Only those who have suffered by this dread disease know of the awful backache and pains of all kinds, accompanied by great weakness and nervous prostration, loss of force and ambition which invariably attend it. I had all these troubles intensified, and was in such bad condition that I could not get up out of my chair except by putting my hands on my knees, and almost rolling out before I could straighten up. I tried the best doctors and many kinds of medicine, but all failed to help me, and I experimented so long endeavoring to get cured that last spring I was in very poor shape, and in seeking for relief my attention was directed by a friend to the remarkable cures of kidney diseases, etc., which were being accomplished by HUNT'S REMEDY. I was induced to try it, and began to take it, and very soon "limbered up" as it were; my severe backache, and the intense pains I had suffered so long, speedily disappeared, notwithstanding I had been bothered with this complaint for many years.

When I began to take HUNT'S REMEDY I was considerably run down in my general health, and suffered also from loss of appetite. Ever since I have been taking the REMEDY, however, my improvement has been most marked. My former complaints, aches, pains, etc., have disappeared, and I now feel like my former self—hale, hearty and sound in health. I shall always keep HUNT'S REMEDY with me, an would most earnestly recommend all those who are sufferers from kidney or liver diseases, or diseases of the bladder or urinary organs, to use HUNT'S REMEDY, and to take none other.

Yours very truly,
HENRY H. SHELDON,
No. 280 Westminster street, Providence, R. I.

"In the lexicon of youth, etc., there is no such word as Fail." That "lexicon" is now found in the laboratory of HUNT'S REMEDY. It knows no such word as—Fail. n6-1yMWF&w1y

PRINCETON,

From Dr. Thomas B. Eagle.

PRINCETON, Cal., June 26, 1882.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston—Gentlemen: I take pleasure in certifying that I have sold DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for twenty years, and know it to be one of the oldest as well as one of the most reliable preparations in the market for the cure of COUGHS, COLDS and THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS. I know of no article that gives greater satisfaction to those who use it, and I do not hesitate to recommend it. I have sold it to many who have been suffering from the effects of Colds and Catarrhal Affection of the Throat and Lungs, and in no instance have I heard of a single complaint against what is claimed for it by the manufacturers. I can cheerfully recommend it as one of the best and safest remedies for Coughs and Colds in the market.

Yours truly, THOMAS B. EAGLE.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881.

Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

Indian War Imminent in Montana—Silver Discoveries in Texas—The New Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg Railroad—Decoration of Confederate Graves—Frightful Leap of a Passenger Train—Shipwrecked Crew Saved—White Man Hanged by a Negro Mob—Destruction by Fire—Items of Foreign News—Etc.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Chicago "Pipe-Hitters."

CHICAGO, May 13th.—The police to-night raided a Chinese opium den on South Clark street, and captured a woman, three white men and four Chinamen, all under the influence of the drug. Among the white men was Joseph Brazee, a confirmed opium-smoker, who contracted the habit in San Francisco ten years ago, when a mere boy, and claims to be the first white man to indulge in the habit in New York. He says the vice is rapidly increasing, both in New York and Chicago, and new dens are being constantly opened. He asserts that the stories about Chinamen taking advantage of the unconscious condition of women who visit the joints have little foundation in fact; that an opium-smoker does not become unconscious. He asserts that most of the female patrons of these places are women of loose character, but that a considerable number of otherwise respectable women have acquired the habit, and that they are safe from personal assault by Chinamen while enjoying the pipe in their haunts.

Indian War Threatened in Montana.

HELENA, May 13th.—Colonel Ilges, commanding at Fort Assinaboine, has information that the Cree Indians are preparing for a general war. Three hundred lodges, under Big Bear, Lucky-Man and Little Pine, are camped within twenty-five miles of Fort Walsh, ready to cross into Montana, to avenge the loss of the Crees in the late horse-stealing raid. Ilges sent couriers to Fort Walsh, demanding that the British authorities take steps to prevent the Indians from crossing the line. Ilges thinks the first attack will be made on the Gros Ventres and Assinaboines, causing a general going on the war-path and loss to the northern Montana stock interest. A party of Crees a few days ago stole forty horses from the Benton and St. Louis Cattle Company, and are being pursued by two companies of cavalry from Fort Assinaboine. A fight will probably result.

Rescued from a Wreck.

NEW YORK, May 13th.—The Dutch steamer Leerdam, Captain Stiererndat, of Amsterdam, arrived here to-day, and reported that on the 6th instant, at 4:30 A. M., she saw a vessel with a signal hoisted, "I must leave the ship." On approaching, found it to be the Norwegian bark Ingo, Captain Cornelliuson, with coal from Greenock for Quebec. On account of the stormy weather, a very heavy sea and the terrible rolling of the ship, the Ingo could not get a boat out. Therefore the Leerdam sent a boat to her assistance, and after much trouble and danger the crew, numbering twelve men and the captain and wife, were saved. It was difficult and dangerous to get alongside the Ingo, and some of the sailors fell into the sea, but were rescued. The captain and wife were taken out of the boat by means of a rope.

Murderer Lynched and Others Warned.

SHREVEPORT (La.), May 13th.—D. C. Hutchins, who murdered Will H. Lyons at the ferry landing in Bussier parish, opposite here, on Tuesday night last, while being conveyed to the Bellevue jail this morning, was taken from the guards by a crowd of 100 men, and hanged in the woods. As Hutchins saw the masked men coming he pulled a large dirk from his pocket and stabbed himself three times near the heart. After hanging him the following placards were pinned to the body: "There is a point where forbearance ceases to be a virtue. Citizens." "Fettermen (both of you), never return. If you do, you will follow this desperado and thief." The Fettermans keep store on the opposite side of the river, and are in some way mixed up with Hutchins and the murder. Thousands of people to-day visited the hanging body.

A Trio of Stockholding Judges.

NEW YORK, May 13th.—Arnold Leo has sued in the United States Circuit Court here to restrain the Pacific Railway Company from issuing collateral trust bonds for building branch roads. Defendant filed a demurrer, claiming that Leo did not show sufficient cause for the injunction. The case came up on Judge Wallace's calendar, but he lately became a stockholder in the company, and declines to hear it. Judge Shipman was appealed to, but he, too, owns stock in the company, and would not listen to the case. Judge Blatchford, when sitting in this Court two years ago, found himself in a similar box.

Suicide of an Italian Officer.

NEW YORK, May 13th.—Lieutenant Tettini, of the Third Savoy Cavalry, Italy, aged 30, stopping at the Windsor Hotel, shot himself in front of No. 5 West Fifty-seventh street to-night. He had been in this country several months, and mixed much in society. He became enamored of a Murray Hill belle, who did not reciprocate his love. For the past few days he has been very melancholy. To-day he was particularly despondent, and his friends watched him closely. Several times they prevented him from killing himself. About 11 o'clock he slipped out, and when next heard from was in the hospital. On his person were found three letters—one to M. C. Tassals, editor of the Echo d'Italia, another to his commanding officers in Verona, Italy, and the third was marked "This is my will." He will die.

The New Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg Railroad.

NEW YORK, May 13th.—The first through train on the new Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg railroad (Panhandle route) will be run Monday. This is the opening of a new and independent line between New York and Chicago over the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Panhandle route and new Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg Railroad.

Favorable Report.

PARIS, May 13th.—In the Chamber of Deputies Cochery, Minister of Posts and Telegraph, in reply to a question, announced that the special Government Commissioners appointed to consider the subject had reported in favor of a subversion to the Transatlantic Company for the use of the postal service between Havre and New York.

A Passenger Train Falls Fifteen Feet.

PENNSBORO (W. Va), May 13th.—A passenger train on the Pennsboro and Harrisville Railroad was precipitated into Hughes river yesterday by a bridge giving away. The passengers were uninjured, but Frank Foster, the conductor, and W. H. King, the engineer, are supposed to be killed. The train fell fifteen feet.

Graves of Confederate Dead Decorated.

Reports are current that the negotiations in London for the settlement of the English debt have been successful.

CYCLONE IN MISSOURI.

Kansas City Visited by a Disastrous Wind-Storm.

KANSAS CITY, May 13th.—A destructive cyclone swept across the southern part of this city shortly after 5 o'clock this evening, unroofing or demolishing buildings for a distance of two miles. The track of the storm ranged from half a block to two blocks in width. Numbers of persons were injured, and some fatalities are reported, but the loss of life is probably not so great as might be expected in view of the extent of the destruction of property. Nothing definite can be given yet, but the loss of property is estimated in hundreds of thousands.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY, May 13th.—The storm made its appearance about 4 o'clock this afternoon, coming from the direction of Wyandotte in the shape of three large, dark, funnel-shaped clouds, rapidly succeeding one another. The two first did little damage. The last cloud passed across the city at the stock-yards, unroofing the Exchange building, and damaging and destroying a number of other buildings. It then struck the bluff on the western line of the city, moved south until it reached Main street, from whence it reverted to the north-east, until it reached the eastern limits of the city, at which point its force seemed to have been spent.

At 11:30 to-night three deaths are reported. Many more were injured, but only a few dangerously so. The loss of property is now roughly estimated at $300,000. None of the finest residences in the city suffered, yet many houses of well-to-do citizens are razed and cottages and shanties innumerable torn to pieces. Miraculous deliveries and escapes are beyond number. The English Lutheran brick church was completely wrecked. Only fifteen minutes before the storm struck the church a large Sunday-school had been dismissed. The walls of the church came together and fell in like an eggshell crushed under the foot. One family were at supper in their basement when the house was blown completely off its foundation, leaving the family unhurt at the table. A gentleman sitting at an open window near the track of the storm was blown across the room through another window and down a passageway. He escaped with little injury. Another gentleman, with a little child in his arms, was blown 300 feet and came down uninjured. One woman was blown against a tree, and had her neck broken. A large number of families are rendered homeless. The Mayor has issued a proclamation for a meeting of citizens to-morrow for relief purposes.

[THIRD DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY, May 13th.—Specials report that the storm did considerable damage at Liberty, Mo., damaging large buildings and blowing down smaller ones. A large portion of the roof of the Marshall Jewell College was torn away. Damage to a similar extent is reported from Pattonsburg, in Davis county. Ontago Station is said to have suffered severely, but nothing is definitely learned yet. The wires in this vicinity, north and west, are down, and communication with the towns in these directions shut off. The telegraph company reports that the interruptions are south of St. Joseph and east of Topeka; therefore if other towns suffered they must be within a comparatively short radius of this city. It is thought there has been no disastrous result except those occurring here.

[FOURTH DISPATCH.]

ST. LOUIS, May 13th.—Very meagre information is received here that a cyclone passed over the head of the mining region in Southwest Missouri between 7 and 8 o'clock to-night, doing great damage to the little towns of Oronogo and Webb City, on the Kansas branch of the St. Louis and S. F. R. R. It is said that both towns were nearly destroyed, and a number of lives lost. The telegraph wires are down, and no particulars can be obtained.

Congressman Thompson's Trial.

CINCINNATI, May 12th.—The Times-Star's Harrodsburg, Ky., special says: In the trial of Phil. B. Thompson for the murder of Walter H. Davis to-day, the Judge ruled that the witness John B. Thompson could not state what he heard from Mrs. Thompson, but could tell what information he gave to the defendant. The witness said that Mrs. Thompson, wife of the defendant, was 45 years old and Davis only 28. During the past two years Mrs. Thompson was often besotted, and in this condition drove through the streets of Harrodsburg. The cross-examination was much protracted, with an effort to break down the defense suggested by D. W. Voorhees of the terrible agitation of Phil. B. Thompson just before the killing. The fact was elicited that after Thompson gave himself up he wrote out his own speech for the use of the reporters, who telegraphed it. Voorhees and Blackburn are anxious to finish the testimony to-day.

The News-Journal's Harrodsburg special says: Train dispatcher Wells testified that there was no wreck on the southern road on the day Davis persuaded Mrs. Thompson to remain over in Cincinnati by telling her there was a wreck on the road.

The appearance of Miss Buckner on the witness stand was the sensational event of trial. The Court-house was crowded, and people stood on tiptoe to catch a sight of the witness and hear her voice. She testified she was a niece of Mrs. Phil. Thompson, Sr., and had been raised as a member of the family. She stood in the relation of a sister to the defendant. She repeated the story of the events at the St. Clair Hotel, saying she warned Davis not to go out with Mrs. Thompson or to get her drunk; that to do so would be to take his life in his hands, as she would tell Mrs. Thompson's husband. She said she wrote to Davis, saying she had told "Cousin Phil" all about the affair at the St. Clair, but, in fact, she had only told him of his wife's drunkenness. John Thompson, when investigating the matter at Phil's request, learned from her of Mrs. Thompson being in Davis' room, and he told her she ought to tell the defendant. She did so when he came to Cincinnati, a day or two before the killing. During her testimony the widow of Walter Davis, supported by her mother and sister, appeared, and were given seats near the counsel. Mrs. Davis was deeply affected, and sat with her handkerchief to her eyes. Miss Buckner's testimony was given with ease and candor.

After an unimportant cross examination of Miss Buckner, Mr. Roth, of the St. Clair Hotel, Cincinnati, corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Roth and Miss Buckner as to what occurred between the parties there. After unimportant testimony of three other witnesses the testimony for the defense was closed, and the Court adjourned.

The Trial of Jere Dunn.

CHICAGO, May 12th.—The trial of Jere Dunn was resumed this morning. Mike McDonald was cross-examined, and declared he saw a revolver in Elliott's pocket an hour before the shooting.

G. S. Stowell, a saloon-keeper at 111 Madison street, testified that a week preceding the tragedy Elliott visited the witness' saloon and said he was hunting for Dunn.

James Mead saw Elliott in Clayton's place some time before the shooting. He was leaning against the bar with his left hand in his pocket, and when a man entered from the outside door he drew a revolver. The witness afterward found Dunn, and informed him that Elliott was looking for him. Dunn replied that he knew it, and they walked away to avoid him. The same witness also asserted that he had a conversation with "Appetite Bill" Langdon after the shooting, in which the latter declared the affair had ruined the business of the Tivoli Restaurant, and he proposed to "down" Dunn.

Opium-Smoking in New York.

NEW YORK, May 12th.—The World points to the steady growth of the importation of smoking opium and the recent large arrivals, and says: Opium-smoking, which began among Americans a few years ago, is steadily increasing in New York, as well as in the Western cities. It has steadily gained devotees. The recently published confession of a woman, who kept a fashionable smoking parlor up town, and which is trustworthy, shows that ladies of good society were her regular customers. There is every reason to believe that opium is regularly smoked elsewhere than in Mott and Pell streets, and though it may not lead to such revolting crimes among the fashionable and rich victims, it none the less deserves the condemnation of society and the investigation of the police.

Supreme Lodge, Knights of Honor.

GALVESTON (Tex.), May 12th.—The fifth day's session of the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Honor convened at 10 o'clock this morning. A resolution was passed to continue the offices of Supreme Reporter and Supreme Treasurer in Louisville, Ky. The Committee on Laws reported on documents submitted on previous days, but nothing of importance was passed affecting the constitution. The Committee on Appeals and Grievances reported, but the report contained nothing of interest for publication.

The call of States brought in a large amount of new business, which was referred to the proper committees.

The Supreme Lodge will not adjourn finally before Wednesday next. To-night the delegates were entertained by a fish chowder at the pavilion on the beach. A handsome portrait of Judge Cochran, Supreme Dictator, executed by Representative Miller, of Illinois, was presented to Mrs. Cochran by the Supreme Lodge in the parlors of the Tremont Hotel last night, Judge Jones, of Missouri, making the presentation speech, and Judge Gratzer, of Tennessee, the response.

Death of Israel Washburn.

PORTLAND (Me.), May 12th.—A private dispatch announces the death of Governor Israel Washburn, at Philadelphia, where he had gone for medical treatment.

[Israel Washburn, Jr., was a brother of Elihu B. Washburn, and was born June 6, 1813, in the town of Livermore, Me. After leaving school he studied law, and in 1834 was admitted to practice. In 1842 he represented his county in the Legislature, afterwards being elected to the Thirty-second Congress by the Whig party, and was re-elected to the Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses, serving in all from 1851 to 1861, when he resigned to accept the Gubernatorial chair in his native State.]

Suicide at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, May 12th.—Charles Walker, an English solicitor, committed suicide in a hotel at the Union depot to-day. Walker arrived in New York on the 4th instant from Liverpool, and was on the way to visit his brother at Summit Park, Col., whom he was to meet at Denver. He arrived here this morning. While on the train he manifested mental derangement, and was cared for at the hotel. While the attendent was absent from the room he shot himself, dying an hour later. He was evidently a man of good family, and left valuable personal effects.

A Big Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 12th.—A fire to-night in the engine-room of George S. Crawford's sawmill destroyed the mill and 1,500,000 feet of lumber; also in Gordon & Rouse's lumber yard 1,000,000 feet were burned. Crawford's loss was $100,000; insurance, $55,000. The loss of Gordon & Rouse was $75,000; insurance unknown. The fire was in the extreme southwestern part of the city and the whole Fire Department was summoned. Other valuable property in the vicinity was saved. The fire was still raging at midnight, but was under control.

Hill is a Gentile, and his wife is said to be of the Mormon persuasion. The case has created a great deal of excitement in Brigham Young's Territory, and the return of the prisoner is looked forward to with considerable interest.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Fisheries Exhibition.

LONDON, May 12th.—Notwithstanding the lowering skies, showers of rain, and a heavy, murky atmosphere, and muddy roads in the morning, a large number of people witnessed the ceremonies attending the opening of the International Fisheries Exhibition at South Kensington. The approaches to the buildings were packed with carriages and pedestrians at an early hour, and long before noon the twenty-three acres of buildings were filled with spectators from all parts of the world. The details of ornamentations and arrangements were incomplete, owing to the unexpectedly heavy amount of work which the arrangements entailed, but the decorations were so managed that the imperfections were in a large degree hidden from view. The general effect of the scene was grand and inspiring. The royal party arrived at 12:10, and were taken through the first hall of exhibits, that devoted to Great Britain, passing thence directly into the departments where were displayed the treasures of the streams, rivers, lakes and seas of the United States and Canada. These were given considerable attention, and elicited much favorable comment.

The United States has 12,000 feet crowded with exhibits of sponges and coral, the finest ever seen. A remarkable feature is that of the fisherman habited and postured in the manner peculiar to the particular fishery under notice. Many details of curing and refrigerating are given with splendid spirit. The preserved specimens of the fresh-water fish of the United States form one of the largest, completest and most interesting exhibitions.

Gossip from England.

NEW YORK, May 12th.—London cables have the following points: There is over a foot of snow covering a great part of Ireland, and in England and Scotland storms of snow and sleet have done great damage. In the north the snow is as heavy as during winter, and thousands of lambs have died in the Cheviots.

The various potentates of Europe and Asia are slowly converging to Moscow to participate in the coronation festival at the end of the month. There is some abatement of Nihilist rumors, but there will be a very general confession of relief when it is all over. It is astonishing to find the degree of sympathy with the Nihilists that is felt by the English Radicals. They regard the project of blowing up the Czar as being by no means wholly without merit. They say that to an intelligent people life under Russia's bureaucratic system is intolerable.

Hon. Windham Stanhope, son of Lord Harrington, secured a divorce yesterday from Mrs. Stanhope, formerly Camille Caroline, a pretty actress, on the ground of her adultery with Lieutenant Adye of the Royal Irish Rifles. Fashionable society at Cames has been deeply scandalized over the developments. Lieutenant Adye was a warm personal friend of the plaintiff, and found Mrs. Stanhope a reckless and fickle beauty. It is understood they are both leaving for America.

He was therefore remanded to prison.

AN OLD COUNTRY NEWLY PROMINENT.

The dispatches have recently frequently spoken of "the Tonquin difficulty." So great a length of time has elapsed since the section referred to was made prominent in the news of the world, that a rapid sketch of the country and the causes out of which its present complications with France arise may prove of interest. The kingdom of Annam is in the southeastern part of Asia. It extends from the most southerly boundary of China south along the eastern shore of the peninsula of Farther India, touching the China Sea on the south, its easterly coast being washed by the waters of the Gulf of Tong King. The northerly division—that next the Chinese border—is Tonquin or Tong King. Comparatively very little has been known of the country. Its policy has been, like that of China, one of exclusion, and in this respect it has been more secretive than the former nation. Its northern region is mountainous. The Sang Koi is the largest of its rivers and fertilizes a large and valuable tract. Near the coast and between the several rivers, all of which flow into the Gulf of Tong King, the land is low and swampy. The southerly frontier is marked by a wall separating Tonquin from the province of Cochin China. At one time Tonquin was an independent principality, but some eighty years ago was united with the kingdom of Annam. The south division of this kingdom is known as Cochin China, and completes the east coast of the peninsula. In 1858, the French, on account of alleged cruelty to the Bishop of Diaz, in Tonquin, demanded reparation. This being refused, a force was sent out and captured Siagon, and a French colony was planted. The area of Tonquin is about 27,000 square miles, and it embraces the richest part of the Annamese kingdom. Its mountains are clothed with forests of the most valuable timber. The river Sang Koi, or more lately known as the Red River, has, for several hundred years, been famed for gold-bearing sands, that are brought by its current from the mountains on the northern and western frontier. About a year ago a French geologist penetrated to these mountains, and his reports lead to the conclusion that the gold-bearing rock of the upper lands, from which the Red River descends, is richer far than any yet discovered in the world. There are in the Tonquin region also exceedingly large and valuable deposits of iron, copper, tin, coal and salt, and latterly there has been large exportation of these products. There are also exports of aromatic woods, cinnamon, cotton, tobacco, silk, rice, sugar, indigo, gums, gelatinous animal substances, as the beche de-mer. The Annamese are a light-hearted people, low in stature, strong, possessed of great endurance, and are recognized as a link between the Malayans and Chinese. They live chiefly on fish and rice. The Annamese army is a rude organization of about seventy thousand men, but ill armed. The population of Tonquin is variously estimated at from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000. It is probable that even the smaller figure is exaggeration; but that there is a dense population is a certainty. In 1874 France concluded a treaty with the King of Annam, guaranteeing the latter his independency of all foreign powers. The treaty provided that Haiphong, on the Tonquin coast, should be an open port, as also Quinhon in Cochin China, and Hanoi, the capital of Tonquin, which is situate on Red river. In 1875 or 1876 the treaty provisions were to be made effective, and on France devolved the duty of opening to commerce the great river of the country for the advantage of itself and of European nations. But the river from a point ten miles above its mouth swarmed with pirates, fierce and daring. These are, in the main, rebels, driven out of China during the Taieping rebellion, and their descendants. They fairly captured Tonquin, robbed right and left, and put the whole country under tribute. They, with a goodly portion of the Tonquinese, are led by Governors of local districts, who oppose foreign entry, and have successfully prevented the treaty provisions being carried out. The King of Annam feared to aid the French, and was but half-hearted at the best, in carrying out the terms of the Convention. He has for years been profuse with excuses for the acts of the people of the interior. Finally, in 1882, French patience broke down, and the King was given sharp notice to comply with the treaty, or France would by force of arms enforce it and clear the river of the obstructionists. The King did nothing for France, but, it is shrewdly suspected, secretly permitted notice to be given to China of what was impending. This was for no love of the Empire, for indeed the Emperor of China claims the King of Annam as a vassal, who must pay tribute to him. Whether the notice was given with the consent of the King or not, it is certain that China interposed a protest to the occupancy of the province by any armed force of exploration. There were commercial reasons for this also, for the reports are that the country just over the Chinese border is vastly richer in mineral wealth than on the Tonquin side, and China is indisposed to have foreign miners enter and explore. Following the protest, however, came a formal application from the King of Annam to the Chinese Government for consent and aid in opening the river. To this China agreed, and the reason is obvious, for with a Chinese and Annamese force to open the stream, France would have no excuse for sending an armed force upon its waters, and which, of course, would mean French seizure and domination of the whole country. France, however, is not to be lured into a surrender of her prize, and has accordingly sent out a force of 1,500 men to command respect for the treaty terms. It has been met by an army of 4,000 Chinese and Annamese at the capital of Tonquin, and, according to advices through French sources, the invaders were victors. China has sent on 2,000 more of her best troops, and France has voted the credit necessary to carry on the war vigorously. It is believed that Germany watches the proceeding with ill-concealed uneasiness, and that she may take a part in the struggle. If the French succeed they will of course seize the entire province, and to this Germany will unquestionably interpose her protest.

THE RULES.

The new civil service rules have been published. They erect three branches of the service—those to serve in the departments at Washington, those to serve under Collectors, and those under Postmasters. There are to be open competitive practical examinations for admission to the service, and examinations for promotion in the service, to test fairly the relative capacity and fitness of the applicants for the duties to be discharged. Proficiency in the ordinary English branches is required in all cases, and 65 per cent. must be obtained by all. In the offices demanding special knowledge it is provided that the applicants must be familiar in special branches. Every applicant must establish his good repute as to moral character, his health and physical capacity. No question can be asked involving political or religious opinion or affiliation. Those examined will be graded, and certificates as to standing in the grades issued. Under a registry system, according to the grade standing, the Commission certifies to any officer about to fill a vacancy the three names standing highest in the grade for such positions, regard being had to the apportionment of appointments to States and Territories. Sex is to be disregarded, except the request of the officer or the law calls for an appointee of a given sex. All original appointments are for the probationary period of six months, at the end of which, if the appointee proves fit, he is "to be absolutely appointed." There are excepted from examination the confidential clerks of heads of departments, cashiers of Collectors and Postmasters, superintendents of money order divisions in postoffices, custodians of money for which another officer is under bond, from and above the grade of assistant cashier; secret service employes, stenographers, interpreters, and those whose employment is exclusively professional, as doctors and lawyers. These regulations no reasonable person can object to. They will free a vast host of Government employes from the slavery of the "rings," "bosses" and machine men and political assessors. The inauguration of the work of the Commission marks the entry of the nation upon an important era in its history. The system will be assaulted from the outside, but the citizen who regards country above party will lend his influence to the support of the Civil Service Commission.

THE PRESIDENT COMING.

It is rumored that President Arthur contemplates spending his summer vacation in California, and that he will, if his plans mature as now expected, arrive in the month of August. It is to be hoped that his present intention will not be abandoned. California will give the President a cordial greeting, But one President has ever visited the State. The hospitality extended to Mr. Hayes will be even more marked and generous in the case of President Arthur, since he will not come in the midst of a national campaign. The time of his coming will be most opportune, as at that date the Knights Templar from the East will be with us, and the whole people will be enthused with the spirit that animates the cordial and willing host. It would be very gratifying if the President could be induced to so time his visit as to spend a day or two in this Capital City at the time of the holding of the annual exposition of the State Agricultural Society, and the inauguration of the new hall of industrial and agricultural art, when he would enjoy the opportunity of meeting thousands of the representative citizens of the interior and of viewing an exposition of the resources of the State.

THE long delayed investigation by the Executive into the alleged mismanagement of State Prison Directors, and of certain irregularities on the part of some of them amounting to violations of the law, is about to be entered upon. The bill of indictment drawn by the Attorney-General is exceedingly long and apparently affords groundwork sufficient for thoroughness of inquiry.

THE "whoop-up" for Mr. Hearst for United States Senator has commenced. Now, then! all together.

CALIFORNIA.

Reprieve of One Month.

LAKEPORT, May 12th.—Sheriff Boggs received a telegram this afternoon from Governor Stoneman ordering a reprieve of one month for William Jones, who was tried and convicted in both the Superior and Supreme Court for the murder of Henry Long near Middletown last spring. The day of execution was set for next Friday. Public indignation is considerably aroused at the Governor's act, for fear the reprieve may ultimately lead to a pardon. Jones is adjudged as wholly deserving of the law's severest penalty.

The Trial of Majors.

SAN JOSE, May 12th.—The trial of Majors, charged, with Jewell and Showers, with the murder of Renowden, commenced to-day. Two jurors on the regular panel were obtained, but no peremptory challenges will be exercised until the panel is full. A venire of fifty additional jurors issued, returnable on Monday, at 10 A. M. To-day Jewell is sick, and has not seen visitors. He says his head feels as though it would burst. This is looked upon as a natural reaction after the strain he has undergone.

Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

SAN JOSE, May 12th.—The Grand Lodge adjourned sine die at a late hour on Friday evening. After the installation of the officers a magnificent jewel was presented, on behalf of the Grand Lodge, by Dr. Breyfogle, of San Jose, to Leon D. Freer, P. G. M. Grand Master W. W. Morrow also addressed the members. The remarks of the three gentlemen were unusually eloquent, and ordered to be printed in the journal of proceedings.

A Wife Killed by Sudden Grief.

SANTA ROSA, May 12th.—Levi Slusser, a pioneer, aged 66, partially insane, cut his throat at his home near Mark West, yesterday, and on hearing it his wife dropped dead. Slusser still survives, but is likely to die.

Crushed by the Fall of His Own House.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, May 12th.—Yesterday a lad passing the house of J. W. Wilcox, about eight miles from town, saw that it had fallen down, crushing the occupant, whose feet were sticking out from under the ruins. He had probably been dead some four or five days when found. Wilcox was an eccentric character, who had long been supported by the county, and who lived entirely alone. He was a native of Massachusetts, aged about 48 years. The Coroner has gone out to hold an inquest, but there is no doubt as to the fact that his house, built of loose stone, without mortar, fell and killed him.

Horrible Accident in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13th.—A shocking accident occurred this afternoon on the line of the steam dummy connecting with the Union street cable road, resulting in the almost instant death of a man named Charles Heusch. The accident happened near Baker street. The train of cars, heavily loaded with passengers, was going out at a full rate of speed. The engineer saw a man and woman walking some distance ahead, both going in the same direction with the train, but walking on the side of the track. When the train came within twenty or thirty yards of the couple the woman was observed to dash forward as if to cross the track. The man sprang after the woman to prevent her attempting the rash and perilous act. He was not quick enough, however, for the train was on them in a moment, and both were caught under the wheels. The man proved to be Charles Heusch, and the woman his wife. He was dreadfully mangled, and only lived a few minutes after being taken from under the cars. At first it was supposed that the woman was killed or fatally injured, but an examination showed that she had escaped with only slight bruises. It is said that Mrs. Heusch is subject to freaks of insanity, and had previously made several attempts on her life. It is generally thought she intended to throw herself on the track. Deceased leaves three children. The cars were crowded at the time, and the fearful accident caused intense excitement.

Death of a Chinese Lady—The Sand Lot.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13th.—On the 16th of February last the mother of the Chinese Consul-General to the United States, Huang Thun Hsing, died in the province of Kwangsai, after a lingering illness. The lady being of prominence and the wife of a Chinese official and the mother of a Consul-General, she had first conferred upon her by the Chinese Government the distinction of the fifth rank, and at the time of her death, at the age of 56, she had been advanced to the third rank. The Consul General here, about two weeks ago, received official notice of the sad event, and according to Chinese custom that official immediately forwarded to all prominent Chinamen on the coast the intelligence, and today, at the Chinese Consulate, No. 917 Clay street, a great many prominent Chinese called to condole with the sorrowing son. Flags were displayed in the Chinese quarters at half-mast, and the usual Celestial celebration was observed.

The usual meeting was held this afternoon at the sand lot, which was well attended. The meeting was addressed by Dennis Kearney, Stephen Maybell, Daniel Sullivan and James Kedney.

Narrow Escape from Destruction by Fire.

SAN RAFAEL, May 13th.—The Parisian House had a very narrow escape from total destruction by fire to-day. At about half-past 12, when upwards of 150 guests were seated at the table awaiting dinner, smoke was seen issuing from several places in the roof. The alarm was given, and in a remarkably short time the hose company had a stream of water on, flooding the entire building. Investigation disclosed that the fire originated from a defective flue leading from the kitchen, and was making its way between the plastering and the outside boards the whole length of the building, and only for the timely application of water, the whole structure would have been in flames.

The Railroad Commissioners in the Mussel Slough Region.

HANFORD, May 13th.—The meeting of the Railroad Commissioners to-day with the Mussel Slough people, was one of intense interest. No special preparations had been made before they came, for a large gathering, or to present complaints, as the people generally had lost faith in the Commission. The interview lasted from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M., and the room where it was held was densely crowded. A number of complaints, accompanied by railroad bills, were presented. All were given a hearing, and considerable latitude of discussion and remarks was allowed. Some freight bills furnished by merchants were presented, but the Commission were requested by the parties offering them not to make known their names.

NEVADA.

The Fair Divorce Case.

VIRGINIA, May 12th.—The divorce suit of Theresa Fair against James G. Fair came up in the District Court this morning. R. S. Mesick appeared for the plaintiff. M. N. Stone, of this city, and Samuel M. Wilson, of San Francisco, for the defendant. Mr. Stone submitted a general demurrer to the complaint, on the ground that it did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for action. The demurrer was submitted without argument, and was at once overruled by the Court. Mr. Stone then said the defense would file no answer to the complaint. Mr. Mesick asked that the Court appoint a time to-day to hear proofs; also, that the examination be conducted privately. The Court appointed 12 o'clock M. for the purpose specified. At 12 o'clock the Court met, but reporters were excluded. It is known, however, that Inez Leonard, a woman of the town, who arrived here to-day under an assumed name, testified to the Senator's infidelity to his wife, and that a deposition of Jennie Smith, a woman of like character in San Francisco, was read. No testimony was offered by the defense.

In a little less than an hour the attorney came out, and it was soon known that a decree of divorce had been granted as prayed for, and that the plaintiff had been allowed $4,250,000 in money and United States bonds and the family residence in San Francisco; also, the custody of the three minor children, Virginia Theresa, Alice and Charles. The custody of the oldest boy, James G. Fair, Jr., was awarded to the defendant. The following are the findings and decision of the Court:

First—That the plaintiff and defendant were duly married on the 30th day of December, 1861, at Carson's, Calaveras county, California, the name of the said plaintiff being at the time of said marriage Theresa Rooney; and that they, the said plaintiff and defendant, then commenced to live and cohabit together as husband and wife, and continued to do so until the 1st day of April, 1883.

Second—That in the year 1866, the said plaintiff and defendant commenced to reside together as husband and wife in Virginia City, Storey county, State of Nevada, and there their residence has continued to be ever since, and there the defendant was found on the 3d day of May, 1883, and served by the Sheriff of said Storey county with the summons and copy of complaint in said action.

Third—That since the said marriage of plaintiff and defendant, there have been born to them as the issue of said marriage, four children—James G., of the age of 20 years; Charles Lewis, aged 16 years; Theresa Alice, aged 13 years, and Virginia, aged 8 years—all living.

Fourth—That the said defendant did, on the 27th day of April, 1883, commit adultery with one Inez Leonard, at a certain house on the southwest corner of Post and Dupont streets, in the city and county of San Francisco, State of California; and said act of adultery on the part of defendant remains wholly unforgiven and uncondoned on the part of plaintiff.

Fifth—That said defendant did commit adultery with one Jennie Smith in the month of October or November, in the year 1881, in a house situated on Jessie street, between Fourth and Fifth, in the city of San Francisco, and that said last-named act of adultery remains wholly uncondoned and unforgiven on the part of the plaintiff.

Sixth—That the said plaintiff has never lived or cohabited with the defendant since she became cognizant of the commission by the defendant of the said acts of adultery, or either of them.

Seventh—That during the period while the said plaintiff and defendant were living and cohabiting together as husband and wife there was acquired by them a large amount of community property, which is now in the hands and under the control of the said defendant.

Eighth—That all the statements of fact contained in the complaint of the plaintiff filed in the action are true.

As a conclusion of law from the foregoing findings of fact, the Court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a dissolution of the marriage between the said defendant and a divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between them; also to the custody and control of three minor children, and also to her proper share of the community property and to the costs of this action. RICHARD RISING,

Judge First Judicial District.

Senator Fair and Mrs. Fair left for San Francisco to-day.

A Child Drowned in a Trout Pond.

VIRGINIA, May 12th.—This forenoon the daughter of J. P. Wheeler, a well-known mill man in Seven-mile Canyon, below this city, was drowned near her father's residence, in a pond fifteen feet in diameter and five feet deep. The pond contained a number of trout that were great pets of the children, eating out of their hands, etc. The child was about six years of age, and had only been missed fifteen minutes when she was found dead in the pond.

ARIZONA.

A Compromise Verdict.

TOMBSTONE, May 12th.—The jury in the May Woodman case was discharged at 2 P. M. After deliberating two hours the jury rendered a verdict of manslaughter. The verdict was a compromise. There was a majority of one in favor of murder in the second degree.

The Apache Situation.

TUCSON, May 13th.—General Garcia's engagement with the Indians in Sonora has demonstrated that the band of renegade Apaches is much larger than heretofore supposed. The general idea has been that they numbered about 150. General Garcia estimates those on the west side of the Sierra Madres mountains at 150 to 200, and those on the east side will probably bring the number up to 300. The country is most abrupt and difficult of access, and those who remember the Modoc war in the lava beds will appreciate the difficulty of the work before General Crook. The Indians cannot be starved out, because the mountains furnish plenty of game. It is believed, in view of the fact that this precipitous country is equal in extent to the State of Ohio, that it will require at least six months to subdue the Apaches.

NEW MEXICO.

Cowboys Captured.

SOCORRO, May 12th.—The Beetle brothers, Bill and Hallelujah Rube, two bad cowboys from Arizona, have just ended a glorious career in the Socorro jail. They prepared to run off a herd of horses, and, being pursued, were captured by Mexicans above La Joya, tried and bound over. They will go to the Penitentiary.

Result of Insulting a Wife.

ALBUQUERQUE, May 12th.—A shooting affray, resulting from an insult offered to a woman, took place in Organ mining camp, Dona Ana county, on Tuesday, one man being killed and another seriously wounded. On Tuesday, before the fatal affair took place, Samuel Hester, who was a watersetter, went to the house of Van Elliott, in Organ, and, finding his wife alone, made indecent overtures to her. He was repulsed and struck with a broom by Mrs. Elliott, upon which he retreated, Mrs. Elliott running out of the house to seek refuge with a neighbor. When her husband returned home he was told of the insult offered to his wife, and he and his brother, Robert Elliott, vowed vengeance upon Hester. Hester did not return to the house until Friday, and the visit cost him his life. He evidently expected trouble, as he brought with him a companion named George Haney, and both were armed, one with a revolver and the other with a Winchester rifle. Another Winchester and a pistol were in the water wagon. Arriving at Elliott's house, Hester got down from the wagon and started in, when the two Elliotts came out, Van with a shotgun loaded with buckshot and his brother with a pistol. They then saw each other, and Hester pulled his revolver and threw it down on Van Elliott, on which both the Elliotts fired at him. Hester then shot at Van and got a load of buckshot in return, which felled him. He pluckily continued firing on Van Elliott after he fell, but did not wound him. He was shot through the lungs, and died on Sunday. Haney was disabled by a shot in the wrist. Neither of the Elliotts were hurt. The trial of the Elliotts was held on Wednesday at Las Cruces, and the two brothers were held in $4,000 bail to appear before the Grand Jury.

MEXICO.

The Tucson and Point Lobos Railroad.

GUAYMAS, May 13th.—The excursion party from Tucson, numbering 25, arrived by the regular train. The excursion was on the invitation of C. M. Strauss, Mayor of Tucson, Charles Hudson, a banker, and E. B. Pomeroy, ex-United States Attorney—the Board of Directors of the Tucson and Point Lobos Railroad. They remained over until to-day, and last evening an American banquet was given at the Cosmopolitan, at which speeches of cordial friendship were made, and at which the principal officers of our city were invited guests. Under the concession granted by the Mexican Government the road is required to be organized in this State, and the preliminary papers were filed at Hermosillo, on their way to this place. The company will now be incorporated, and work commenced as soon as the surveys are accepted. The entire party of Directors are agreeably surprised at the advantages of Guaymas as a port, American capital and enterprise being all that is required to make it a success. The Board of Directors desire to impress on the people here that they desire more close and amicable relations for mutual benefit; that without the support of the people their enterprise is useless.

Two carloads of imported merchandise, consigned to Bernhardt & Co., from New York, arrived last night—the first shipment through made per the Sonora Railroad.

UTAH.

Advices from Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, May 12th.—Bishop Pollard, of the Fifteenth Ward, has just taken another celestial wife. D. Bockholdt, County Clerk of Salt Lake county, in spite of the laws but by favor of our queer Court, has quite recently added another woman to his already polygamous household. In fact, the polygamy sealing mill seems to be worked harder just now than for many years.

It is announced here that the Union Pacific Company has definitely determined to extend its Salt Lake and Western (formerly Lehi) extension of the Utah Central road through Central and Southern Nevada to California.

The worst dust-storm of the year covered this city to-day in a sea of flying earth, while much minor damage was done by the strong gale.

The ruling of the Colorado Court which discharges Al. Packer, the murderous cannibal who killed seven Utah men, his companions in a prospecting expedition, on the ground that the crime occurred prior to the establishment of the jurisdiction of the Court over the region where the crime was committed, causes great disgust here.

IDAHO.

Two Men Frozen to Death.

LEWISTON, May 12th.—M. S. McHale and Victor Chandmanche were frozen to death about the 2d instant while making a snowshoe trip from John Day creek on Salmon river over the mountains towards Florence. Only McHale's body was found. Both men are Idaho pioneers. McHale has been a storekeeper at Florence, and been there ever since the first camp was established.

OREGON.

To Prison for Life—A Small Fire.

PORTLAND, May 12th.—The case of W. W. Abrams, on trial at Eugene for the murder of Dr. J. Brownlee, went to the jury at 10:15 last night. They returned a verdict of murder in the second degree, after ten hours' deliberation. As Judge Bean was obliged to leave by the afternoon train for Roseburg, Abrams was sentenced at 1 P. M. to imprisonment for life. This is the heaviest sentence ever passed on a culprit in Lane county. Abrams was a young merchant, and was respectably connected throughout the State and had borne an excellent reputation. The trial excited great interest in this city.

A fire at Eugene this morning damaged William Preston's harness shop to the amount of $1,000, and stock $500; fully insured.

Cutting Affray at Astoria.

PORTLAND, May 13th.—An Astoria special says: Dick Baker and Joe Hayes had a quarrel in Fill's Varieties about a woman, when Hayes cut Baker in the pit of the stomach with a knife. Physicians pronounce the wound fatal. Hayes is under arrest.

ANOTHER STEAMER BURNED.

Total Destruction of the Mississippi—Loss of Life.

PORTLAND (Or.), May 13th.—The Merchants' Exchange has the following from Seattle: The steamer Mississippi was burned this morning with 1,100 tons of coal. No steamer or tug being near to tow her away, the fire spread to the coal bunkers, burning 500 feet. The chief engineer of the steamer was burned to death. The bunker timbers fell, killing one man and injuring one. The steamer is a total loss.

PARTICULARS OF THE DISASTER.

SEATTLE (W. T.), May 13th.—At 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the oil room of the steamship Mississippi, lying alongside the dock of the Columbia and Puget Sound Railroad Company. The alarm was instantly sounded, the hose brought out and the pumps started, but owing to the inflammable nature of the surroundings it was plain in a moment that there was no putting the fire out, that the ship was doomed, and it behooved all hands to get ashore at the earliest possible moment. The men accordingly went, some on the wharf and some overboard, none of them saving anything, and those who were asleep not even getting off with their clothing. In almost the time that it takes to write it, the wooden deck houses and the rigging of the ship and the whole upper works were ablaze. The wind kept the vessel against the dock, to which the flames were quickly imparted, and in twenty minutes from the first alarm the whole outer end of the wharf—three hundred feet long, built up sixty feet above the water—was a mass of fire. The ship Spartan lay on the other side of the wharf, only sixty feet from the Mississippi, and she too would have gone had not the Captain instantly acted. He parted his lines at once, and was quickly moved away from the place of danger by the light breeze prevailing. The city Fire Department hurried down to the wharf, but owing to the low stage of the tide they were unable to hoist water from the bay, and there was no other accessible. They, therefore, were practically of no value in saving either ship or wharf. At 4 o'clock

A SECTION OF THE HIGH INCLINE FELL

Among a large number of people. A ship carpenter named Hogan was struck and hurt so badly that he died a few hours later. Several other persons were struck by the timbers, but not seriously injured. A dozen or more were knocked into the bay with and among the falling timbers, and as many were picked up as were discovered. It is not known that any others were killed or drowned, but it is quite possible that several lives were lost, of which we yet have no account. The only person on the Mississippi known to have been burned to death was Charles Knapp, the Chief Engineer, who was probably suffocated while in bed, and whose bones were afterward found on board the ship. Mr. Knapp leaves a wife and children in San Francisco. The hull of the Mississippi, made of iron, was not destroyed, but everything of wood in or on her was. Had there been some tug in port with steam up the Mississippi could have been turned out into the stream and the wharf saved. Later she was taken hold of and towed ashore, where they have been pouring water into her all day, the 800 tons of coal in her held making a terrible fire all the while. The lower hull will not be injured beyond repair, but may again be built up.

THE BURNED VESSEL.

The Mississippi was an iron screw of about 1,200 tons burden, and was built for a blockade runner during the war, but was captured on her first voyage, with a cargo on board said to be the most valuable taken during the rebellion. She was afterward placed in the cotton carrying trade, and run on various routes till some two years ago, when she was purchased by the Oregon Improvement Company, to run in connection with their other coal vessels between this port and San Francisco. The direct and indirect loss on the wharf was about $40,000. The steamer was valued at over $100,000, and was insured. Captain Holmes thinks the fire was caused by the spontaneous combustion of waste in the oil-room. Thousands of persons were aroused from their slumbers, and the wharves were lined with people, all anxious to do something to save life or property, but they were powerless. The rain and the direction of the prevailing wind prevented the fire from spreading to the other wharf of the company or any part of the town, else a most awful conflagration must have resulted.

A SERIES OF FATALITIES.

The burning of the Mississippi is the last of a series of fatalities to northern coast steamers that, covering a short period, is perhaps the most remarkable in the history of the country, including the destruction of six vessels since the beginning of the present year, namely, the Josephine, by the bursting of the boiler; the Gem, Grappler and Mississippi, by fire; and the Tacoma and Eureka, by running on the rocks. The disasters of the steamers occasioned the loss of over 100 lives, and the destruction of property valued at $750,000—a combination of calamities the immensity of which it is impossible to realize. The work of rebuilding the wharf was begun immediately, in order that shipments of coal may be renewed at the earliest moment, six ships being now in the harbor awaiting cargoes.

THE SACRAMENTANS ABROAD.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: Impressions of Mormondom! I wish I could give expression to those made upon my mind. We reached Ogden at 8 o'clock Friday morning, when we moved curtains, plaques, etc., to the Union Pacific cars. After doing so we were informed that Mr. Rice had obtained permission to have our sleepers attached to the regular train for Salt Lake City, thus saving the trouble of changing cars for that trip and of going to a hotel at Salt Lake. Upon our arrival at the city we found carriages awaiting us, ready to take us to "see the sights."

The first point to be visited was, of course, the Tabernacle. The descriptions which we had heard before visiting it we found to be in no wise exaggerations. Our party, numbering about ninety, were directed to take seats in the gallery at the rear end of the hall, when our guide whispered short sentences, and also dropped a pin into his hat, both of which performances were distinctly heard by the audience, which was seated 225 feet from the altar in which he stood. Then he sang a Mormon hymn, showing how perfectly every syllable of every word could be heard throughout that immense hall. After admiring his new Assembly hall and the wonderful strength and size of the new granite Temple, now in course of erection, we made a hasty call at the Tithing House, and from thence were driven to the military post, Camp Douglass, nestled among the mountains which overlook the city. Exclamations of delight over the beautiful scene were profuse. We could easily understand the feeling of security and rest which the Mormons must have felt as they emerged from the grand old Wahsatch range and came upon this quiet little valley, completely surrounded by snow-capped mountains, the beautiful Great Salt Lake off in the distance, just in front of us, its clear and smooth waters completing the perfect restfulness of the scene. The city in itself is not particularly beautiful, although the residences of Ex-Mayor Jennings, Mayor Little, Governor Murray, President Taylor, George Q. Cannon, the Clark brothers, Dr. Hamilton, and others, are truly palatial—surrounded by handsome grounds containing quantities of beautiful tulips and other plants in full bloom. But the small houses, the humbler houses, were entirely devoid of any sort of garden or show of care, not even a rosebush or a spear of grass seeming to exist. During our ride we of course questioned our driver, a young man about 20 years of age, as to the various points and subjects of interest. Some one of our party of five expressed a desire that he should point out to us a "regular Mormon home," and then, when he did not seem to be particularly communicative upon the subject, came the question, "Are you a Mormon?"

"Well, my folks are Mormons, but I ain't much of a one."

"Oh, I see—a sort of backslider; but your father and mother are Mormons."

"Well, no; my father wasn't a Mormon. He died about nine years ago, back in Missouri; but my mother and my other parents is mostly all Mormons."

The idea of those "other parents" was peculiarly amusing to the party.

During our journey about the city the ward school buildings were pointed out to us, and some one asked if there was any High School in the city, when the driver, with an expression on his face indicative of contempt and amusement at our evident lack of observation, answered: "Yes, a few of 'em is pretty high, but they're mostly about one story high." We came to the conclusion that California's system of free schools is preferable to Utah's system of ward schools, where a tuition is exacted of every attendant.

We visited the Presbyterian church and the Collegiate Institute under the patronage of that church. It is one of the few successful Gentile schools in existence in the Territory, and consists of two high school grades—one a boys' and the other a girls' high school—a grammar, an intermediate, and a primary department, the last containing 70 pupils. Then we visited the Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, where anything, from a toothpick to a mowing machine, including groceries, dry goods, boots and shoes, gentlemen's furnishing goods, hardware, musical instruments—in fact, every conceivable article made, may be obtained. They have a wholesale and a retail department, and were very hospitable and painstaking in showing forth the points of interest in each department, the head of one of them devoting his time to us.

In the evening many of the party attended the meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Colorado, the members of which extended a very cordial invitation to our California clergy and their friends to join them, and made their evening very pleasant. Several others of the party made a tour of the business streets, which are very wide and brilliantly lighted with electric lights, and many of the larger stores being similarly lighted. In fact the place, by gas and electric light, presented a very busy, live appearance, and our impressions of Great Salt Lake City were decidedly pleasant. Yet I am quite sure that everyone, young ladies included, were ready to resume their journey eastward, when morning came.

Before leaving the depot Saturday morning we received a call from Francis Cope, General Agent of the Utah Central Railway, who complimented us very highly upon the appearance of our car and the general success of our trip. He had already, as have all agents and Division Superintendents along the line, given written orders to his conductors and brakemen to "take good care of Rev. Mr. Rice and his party, and to extend to them every courtesy within your power, that they may sing the praise of our conductors and brakemen." And we are very glad to assure our friends that the orders have been followed to the letter. At 7:30 Saturday morning we left Salt Lake City, having received the best wishes and congratulations of many of her citizens, who appeared to be very much interested in our California excursion. More anon. TEKA.

Hubert Herkomer, the artist, as the Boston correspondent of the Springfield Republican learns, "will carry off at least $100,000 as the result of his six months' work" in that city. The writer adds: "The prices he has received have been something astonishing. The sum of $2,500 a picture—a portrait—has not been an uncommon one for him to receive."

New Orleans has the best fish market in the country, San Francisco the best fruit market, meat is cheapest at Chicago, and the best general market in the world is on the Delaware and Chesapeake Bay, shared by Philadelphia and Baltimore.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE FOLSOM MURDER.

Full particulars have been obtained of the murder which took place in New York ravine, above Folsom, on last Friday. The murdered man was not a peddler, as at first reported. He came from the mountains, and stated to people along the road that he had gone to the higher mountains for the purpose of prospecting, but found the snow too deep and returned. At several places along the road he had inquired for work. The pack-horse was for the purpose of carrying his clothing and supplies. The man is unknown, and nothing was found by which he could be identified. In his pack were found three new shirts, labeled "Nathan & Co., Sacramento." On the road not far beyond where he was murdered he called at a saloon and asked for a bottle of wine, for which he tendered a $20 piece for payment. The keeper of the house was unable to change it, and the man gave him what silver he had, which was not quite sufficient to pay the bill. The transaction was witnessed by one James Page. The latter has been recently discharged from Folsom Prison, where he was sentenced for ten years, for a murder committed not far from New York ravine. He left the saloon at the same time the stranger did and went to the home of his mother, not far distant, and got a Winchester rifle and left the house. Not long afterwards shots were heard in New York ravine, and presently Page returned the gun to the house and changed his clothes. The officers who arrested Page went to the house and obtained the gun but did not find the clothes. The cartridges in the gun and the empty shells found on the ground at the scene of the murder just make a complete load for the rifle, and the shells correspond exactly.

The Coroner of El Dorado county, accompanied by the District Attorney, came to the ravine and impaneled a jury and held an inquest. The verdict was that the deceased came to his death from gun-shots fired from a rifle in the hands of James Page. The prisoner was lodged in Folsom on Saturday night and taken to Placerville yesterday. Constable McComber, of Folsom, made the arrest.

MURDER AT HICKSVILLE.—Saturday night at about 12 o'clock Constable Al. Smith, of Hicksville, arrived in this city with a murderer, who was lodged in the city prison. The following particulars of a villainous murder at Arno's Hotel in Hicksville were learned: A man named Robert Elwell was sitting in the bar-room of the hotel about 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, watching a game of cards. Without the slightest apparent provocation the barkeeper, named Mac Porter, came up to Elwell and struck him on the head with a beer mallet. Three heavy blows were struck. The assaulted man ran out the door and fell on the sidewalk. The murderer followed and struck him several times. Constables Fugitt and Smith soon after arrested Mac Porter. In the afternoon the prisoner was given a preliminary examination before Justice Kane and held to answer for attempt to commit murder. Constable Smith started for Sacramento, and while at Galt learned that Elwell had died from the effects of the wounds. The murderer was once an inmate of the Napa Insane Asylum. This deed is supposed to have been committed while in an insane fit. The victim has been in the vicinity of Hicksville for about a year, working on a ranch, and is known to be a hard-working and quiet man. Nothing is known of his history previous to his arrival at that place. Yesterday morning MacPorter was removed from the city prison to the County Jail. He refuses to talk about the murder.

BASEBALL.—The Union and the Confidence Baseball Clubs played a match game at Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon for a purse of $200 and gate money. The gate money amounted to about the same as the purse, after paying all expenses, which shows that there was a good attendance. The match was a spirited one, and some excellent playing was done on both sides. The Confidence scored five runs and the Unions six, the latter not going to the bat the last inning. There were several other games played yesterday between other nines, among which are noted a match between the Californias and Railroads, which was won by the former by a score of 5 to 1. Also the Eurekas, Jr., defeated the Young Mechanics by a score of 14 to 0. The Comet Baseball Club has reorganized, with the following-named officers: C. Van Alstine, President; L. Allen, Vice-President; N. McManus, Captain; B. Welch, Secretary; F. Welch, Treasurer; F. Griffin, Property-Man.

THE SUPREME COURT.—The May term of the Supreme Court will open in this city this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The calender for the entire session was published a few days ago in the RECORD-UNION. This afternoon will be taken up with motions and the examination of applicants for admission to practice. Several applicants for admission from other places have already arrived in this city. Clerk of the Court McCarthy and J. S. Williams, deputy for San Francisco, arrived last evening. The Judges will arrive to-day at noon. Chief Justice Morrison has not recovered from his sickness, and will not be present at this session.

STILL AHEAD.—An exchange says: "The Oberlin (O.) Glee Club, on their vacation tour, cleared $500." Here's where California comes in ahead again. A Sacramento glee club, out on a vacation trip, has "vacated" the country, and at latest accounts had "cleared" several hundred dollars' worth of board bills; the advance agent had run away with the manager's wife, and the landlords all along the late route of the club are so enthusiastic that they have armed themselves and are anxiously waiting for another tour of the dulcet troupe.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.—P. F. Williamson, accompanied by a lady named Mrs. L. McDougal, left this city yesterday morning for his ranch, about five miles east of Elk Grove. The horse driven was a young and spirited one. Word was received in this city last evening that they had met with a serious accident through the horse running away. Both the occupants were thrown from the buggy and badly hurt. No particulars could be learned last evening.

CITY TREASURY.—Receipts for the week ending Saturday, May 12th: R. D. Scriver, water rates, $934; Wm. Laufkotter, cemetery dues, $15; N. A. Kidder, harbor dues, $10; W. A. Henry, Police Court fines, $65; d. H. McKee, rent and labor, $244; George A. Putnam, city licenses, $365 76; George A. Putnam, city taxes, $44,000; total, $45,633 76; total disbursements, $912 17; total amount in city treasury, $234,075 04.

REGENT OF THE UNIVERSITY.—Captain George J. Ainsworth has been appointed Regent of the University of California by Governor Stoneman, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge McKee. Captain Ainsworth graduated from the University in 1873, and was formerly Superintendent of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. He resides in the suburbs of Oakland.

FORESTERS' SHOOT.—Yesterday the Forester Gun Club held their regular shoot at Agricultural Park for the club medals. J. C. Dace, the latest accession to the club, won the first medal, killing twelve straight birds. The second medal was won by W. E. Gerber.

A WEEK AT THE THEATER.—Theatergoers are promised a treat at the Metropolitan during this week. This evening "Michael Strogoff" will be presented. There is a strong cast of characters, including Jos. R. Grismer and Alma Stewart Stanley, both of whom are well known to Sacramento audiences. "Michael Strogoff" is a rather free dramatization of Jules Verne's famous novel, but it retains all the thrilling interest which this writer infuses into his productions. The scenes are laid in Russia and Siberia, during a war with the Tartars. The Grand Duke is besieged at Irkutsk, and a courier is sent from Moscow with assurance of assistance. This courier is the hero, "Michael Strogoff," and his perilous adventures furnish the ground for the play. As a part of the military needed in the production of this piece the Governor's Guard Cadets, Captain Eisenminger, of this city, will appear. The thorough military training of which the Cadets are possessed will add much to the play. The same play will be presented to-morrow and Wednesday evenings. On Thursday and Friday evenings "Rose Michel" will be given by the same company. "Michael Strogoff" will be repeated at the matinee Saturday, and the engagement will close Saturday evening with the presentation of the play, "Oliver Twist." There is no extra charge for reserved seats.

FEAST OF PENTECOST.—The Feast of Pentecost was celebrated with great pomp yesterday at the German Lutheran Church of this city, the auditorium being filled to its utmost capacity. After the liturgical responses, prayers and hymns, prescribed by the church for the occasion, and the singing of a solo, well rendered by Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, the Rev. Dr. C. Taubner, pastor, preached a discourse, his theme being "The Light that Dawns on Pentecostal Morn," divided into the following heads: (1.) It clarifies God. (2.) It judges the world. (3.) It gives new life to perishing souls. Under the latter the preacher remarked that the wonderful spirit which descended upon the apostles on the first pentecostal morn, as "a rushing, mighty wind, and as flaming tongues of fire," could not be more appropriately likened than to a repetition of the occurrence at the creation of the world, where God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul. In the same manner, said the speaker, and by the same act, the apostles were made new men, spiritual men, godly men.

A REPRIEVE.—Saturday Governor Stoneman granted a reprieve of one month to William Jones, of Lake county, who was sentenced to be hanged on the 18th instant for the murder of Henry Long, on May 7, 1882. The petition for the reprieve was signed by all the county officers and the Judge of the Court of that county.

POLICE COURT.—Business was transacted in the Police Court Saturday, as follows: John C. Welsh, petit larceny, discharged. Thos. Jackson, exposure of person, pleaded guilty; fined $50. Antone Gregory, battery, pleaded guilty; fined $60. Tom McCants and Frank McClintock, robbery, discharged. Eli Mayo, felony, discharged.

BANJO LESSONS.—Elsewhere will be found an announcement that J. H. Taylor will give lessons in banjo-playing. Taylor is an old-time minstrel and will be remembered by old Sacramentans, he having performed in this city as early as 1854 and at various times from that time to 1870. He intends to make this his home in the future.

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION NOT WANTED.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: In the statement published in last Thursday's evening paper, another expert was asked for by Mr. Beckley, which has since been refused.

The four new members of the present Board of Supervisors were appointed several weeks ago to examine the county books, and they not only confirmed all that the late Grand Jury and the experts had said, but added considerable more to it. The late experts did not admit that their report was fraught with errors; they did not ask to make any corrections; they did not make any at the request of any member of the late Grand Jury; the two experts did not receive $1,000, or $900, or even $800, for their nearly four months' labor in expert ing.

The Grand Jury made no report on Mr. Greenlaw's books. The experts finished with January 8, 1883, and examined none of the present officers' books. The nineteen Grand Jurors were in session nearly four months, and were at all times ready to listen to the complaints of any citizen, or to receive any suggestions. They remained in session as long, it is to be hoped, as was for the public good. Surely the nineteen Grand Jurors, the two experts, and the four new Supervisors—twenty-five in all—could not have made many errors or false statements.

The taxpayers of this county will be glad to hear that there will be money enough, as Mr. Beckley states, to run the county government till next January, even if there is less than $71,000 in all the funds, including State fund, bond and interest, and sinking funds. But we will wait and see as to the truth of this statement. EX-GRAND JUROR.

BRIEF NOTES.

Owing to the bad weather the Heiterkeit Social Club picnic has been postponed until further notice.

The citizens of Woodland have subscribed $1,500 toward having the next military encampment of the First Artillery Regiment held in their town.

Thos. Fox has been appointed Quartermaster on the regimental staff of the First Artillery Regiment, with the rank of First Lieutenant, vice A. Elkus, resigned.

On June 23 an election will be held in Isleton school district, at which will be submitted the question of raising a tax sufficient to pay off the debt of the district, which amounts to $500.

The annual picnic of the Imp. O. R. M., which was postponed Saturday, will be held at Natoma Grove on Tuesday, May 22. Tickets purchased for Saturday will be good for that date.

The Folsom Telegraph says that a resident of that town complains that hoodlums from Sacramento who come with the picnics are not content with stealing his cherries, but destroy the trees by breaking down the branches.

Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie and Captain Burke went to Woodland Saturday, and returned last evening. They were at Yolo's capital looking after the inducements to be offered for holding the next military encampment in that place.

Turner Hall was again crowded with people last evening, to view Kohler's waxwork exhibition, and to listen to the concert. The hall was in the same condition at the matinee Saturday, and the performance in the evening. This will be the third week of the entertainment.

Judge Armstrong Saturday rendered a decision in the case of E. B. Mark on habeas corpus, and ordered the prisoner remanded to State Prison, to serve out his original sentence. The prisoner's counsel announce that the matter will be taken before the Supreme Court at once.

A claim of $682 against the Odd Fellows' Savings Bank, and five full pieces of fine cloth, belonging to the estate of Jos. Vinnemeyer, deceased, will be sold to-morrow by public auction at 10:30 A. M., at the Courthouse door, by order of the Public Administrator. D. J. Simmons is the auctioneer.

The California Temperance and Benevolent Society held a musical and literary entertainment at their hall last evening. The following programme was excellently rendered: Song, Mrs. Ed. Katzenstein; song, Frank Rodgers; reading, Mrs. H. M. Rodgers; song, Miss Cleo Cooper; recitation, Mr. Dolan, of San Francisco; song, Mr. Lithauer; reading, Mr. Murray; recitation, Mr. Crackbon.

Eli Mayo was discharged in the Police Court Saturday on a charge of felony, and immediately rearrested for misdemeanor, which is the same affair under another title. The charge of robbery against Frank McClintock and Tom McCants was dismissed, and the prisoners discharged. The former was immediately rearrested, and charged with battery. Justice Tubbs presided during the hearing of these cases, Judge Henry being disqualified.

GENERAL TOZER'S FURNITURE AUCTION.—To-day, at 10:30 o'clock, the furniture and household goods belonging to General Tozer will be sold by public auction at his residence, 1121 K street, by Bell & Co. At 8 o'clock the house will be open for inspection, and at 9:45 o'clock the family horse, phaeton, harness, side-bar buggy, and the family cow, will be sold by auction. A partial list of the furniture to be sold is given elsewhere.

Underwear Day!

Our present stock of UNDERWEAR is most complete. A large part of it has but recently come from the East, and from makers who rank foremost among the chief manufacturers in the country. An examination of the goods will justify their reputation. Every seam true and even; every stitch perfect; every garment shaped and designed with the greatest care—nothing neglected, nothing slighted. And as to prices, through large manufacturing and the employment of the approved machinery, the best methods and the more skilled labor, these makers are able to produce garments which we can sell at prices which, quality of work considered, will hardly justify any one in making such goods at home.

DYSPEPSIA.

The late Dr. Leared, in his recently published essay on "The Causes and Treatment of Indigestion," lays down as a fundamental principle that the amount of food which each man is capable of digesting with ease always has a limit which bears relation to his age, constitution, health and habits, and that indigestion is a consequence of exceeding this limit. Different kinds of food are also differently adapted to different constitutions. Dyspepsia may be brought on by eating irregularly, by allowing too long an interval between meals, and by eating too often. Frequently the meals are not gauged as to their relative amount, or distributed with a due regard to health. Thus, when we go out after taking a light breakfast and keep at our work, with a still lighter lunch only during the interval, till evening, we are apt, with the solid meal which tempts us to indulgence, to put the stomach to a harder test than it can bear. "When a light breakfast is eaten, a solid meal is requisite in the middle of the day. When the organs are left too long unemployed they secrete an excess of mucus which greatly interferes with digestion. One meal has a direct influence on the next; and a poor breakfast leaves the stomach over-active for dinner. * * The point to bear in mind is, that not to eat a sufficiency at one meal makes you too hungry for the next; and that, when you are too hungry, you are apt to overload the stomach, and give the gastric juice more to do than they have the power to perform." Persons who eat one meal too quickly on another must likewise expect the stomach finally to give notice that it is imposed upon. Other provocatives of dyspepsia are imperfect mastication, smoking and snuff-taking, which occasion a waste of saliva—although some people find that smoking assists digestion, if done in moderation—sitting in positions that cramp the stomach, and the pressure that is inflicted on the stomach by the tools of some trades, as of curriers, shoemakers and weavers. The general symptoms of dyspepsia are well known. Some that deserve special remark are fancies that the limbs or the hands are distorted, mental depression, extreme nervousness, hypochondria, and other affections of the mind. The cure is to be sought in avoiding the food and habits by which dyspepsia is promoted, and using and practicing those which are found to agree best with the system of the subject. Regularity in the hours of meals cannot be too strongly insisted on. "The stomach should not be disappointed when it expects to be replenished. If disappointed, even a diminished amount of food will be taken without appetite, which causes the secretions to injure the stomach, or else impairs its muscular action."

"YOUR Skin Cure is superexcellent. It is fast curing my daughter's ring worm, which had spread over all her body." Mrs. E. L. D. Merriam, Blue Hill, Mass. Druggists keep it. $1 per package.

Though unusual for this time of the year, the War Department keeps open most of the recruiting stations throughout the country, and from the frequent orders for more recruits it may be inferred that the service hardly keeps pace with the number of desertions and expiration of the terms of enlistment.

, "Durability is better than show." Durability of health is worth more than the wealth of a Vanderbilt. Kidney-Wort is man's co-laborer in maintaining health. With healthy liver, bowels and kidneys, men and women will always be in good health. If the bowels are torpid, if piles torment, if the back is full of pain, get a package of Kidney-Wort and be cured without more suffering.

SOLID SHOT AGAINST BLOOD POISON!

ATLANTA (Ga.), April 17, 1883.

In 1878 I was the victim of a terrible Blood Poison, and after being treated by three Physicians was confined to my bed, not able to raise my hand to my head—spitting up clots of blood, and reduced in weight from 185 to 130 pounds. I then begun the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, and in less than three months I was entirely well, weighed 196, and have never had a symptom of the disease since. If it had not been for Swift's Specific I believe I would have been in my grave. JOHN V. BISHOP.

Tried Hot Springs Two Years Without Relief.

Mercurial Rheumatism made me a cripple. After trying Hot Springs two years, and the Mercury and Potash treatment until I was a skeleton and unable to do anything, I was prevailed upon to take a course of S. S. S. After taking three bottles my appetite began to improve, and I gained flesh rapidly. When I had taken twelve bottles I felt as well as I ever did. It is now twelve months since I took S. S. S. My health and appetite are good, and I am able to attend to all the business I can get. CHAS. BERG.

Hot Springs, January 1, 1883.

$1,000 REWARD will be paid to any Chemist who will find, on analysis of 100 bottles S. S. S. one particle of Mercury, Iodide of Potassium, or any Mineral substance. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Proprs., DRAWER 3, ATLANTA, GA.
